

Our Message To You

The safety and comfort of our guests and staff is and has always been a top priority. Our daily operations will look different for a while, but we promise our commitment to providing you with exceptional service and memorable experiences has not changed.

Our resort will be open to the full extent that is allowed by our state officials. We are following the recommendations and highest level of standards and guidelines set by the State of Vermont. This is changing regularly and we will continue to adjust operations as allowed.

We thank you for your support. Enjoy your stay!
